1. ESKE (United Syndicalist Movement of Greece) has been ordered by the KKE (Greek Communist Party) to tell its leaders who work in various concerns and factories to avoid clashes with their employers in order to avoid at all costs dismissal from their jobs. The initiative for any disturbances among the workers is to be left to the labor leaders of ELD (League of Popular Democracy) and even to the followers of Photios Makris, whenever such disturbances would mean the dismissal of ESKE members.
2. At a meeting of ESKE officials in Athens Dimitrios Mariolis protested against these orders and maintained that the influence and purpose of ESKE would be emasculated by such activities. Mariolis also protested against the dictatorial position of Marinou Xagoraris.
